Refund Support
Vocations Program

RSVP

Purpose:

- This program plants the seeds of greater cooperation between the Knights and those men who will be our future priests in the parishes that we deal with on an ongoing basis.
- These men will remember that we helped them when they needed our financial assistance during their formation years.

RSVP

Qualifications:

- Councils or assemblies can make an annual contribution of $500 or more to an individual seminarian to help with his daily living expenses.
- Minimum annual contribution to qualify for reimbursement is $500 per seminarian.
- For every $500 donated, the council or assembly is eligible for a refund of $100 from the Supreme Council.

- The maximum refund a council or assembly can receive is $400 per individual supported
 - For Columbian Squires circles, the annual contribution per seminarian is a minimum of $100 to qualify for reimbursement.
 - Each circle is eligible to receive from Supreme Council a refund of $20 for each $100 contributed.

RSVP

Who are eligible to receive RSVP funds:

- Seminarians who have been accepted by a diocese and are currently in their “spirituality” year.
- Seminarians attending major seminaries (usually, four years) in preparation for priestly ordination.
- Seminarians in their “pastoral” year (most often, when they are deacons).

- Seminarians attending college seminaries (sometimes called minor seminaries).
- Seminarians who belong to a religious institute and are currently in formation for the priesthood (religious seminarians often are called “Brother” even though they will eventually be ordained as priests); and
- Men and women who are novices or postulants in religious orders or religious communities

RSVP

Who are not eligible for RSVP funds are the following:

- Priests or religious seeking assistance for continuing education.
- Religious brothers not currently studying for the priesthood; and
- Candidates for the permanent diaconate.

Form 2863 (Supreme Form)

Please review these guidelines before completing application form on reverse

The Knights of Columbus launched the Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP) in 1981. Under this program, local councils or assemblies make an annual contribution of $500 or more to an individual seminarian to help with his daily living expenses. Councils and assemblies can sponsor more than one seminarian if their resources permit. In each case, the minimum annual contribution to qualify for reimbursement under RSVP is $500 per seminarian. For every $500 donated, the council or assembly is eligible for a refund of $100 from the Supreme Council. The maximum refund a council or assembly can receive is $400 per individual supported. For Columbian Squires circles, the annual contribution per seminarian is a minimum of $100 to qualify for reimbursement, with each circle eligible to receive from the Supreme Council a refund of $20 for each $100 contributed.

The following persons are eligible to receive RSVP funds:

- Seminarians who have been accepted by a diocese and are currently in their “spirituality” year;
- Seminarians attending major seminaries (usually, four years) in preparation for priestly ordination;
- Seminarians in their “pastoral” year (most often, when they are deacons);
- Seminarians attending college seminaries (sometimes called minor seminaries);
- Seminarians who belong to a religious institute and are currently in formation for the priesthood (religious seminarians often are called “Brother” even though they will eventually be ordained as priests); and
- Men and women who are novices or postulants in religious orders or religious communities.

Those eligible for assistance include foreign seminarians studying in the United States or Canada; U.S. or Canadian seminarians studying overseas; seminarians from your home diocese currently attending seminaries in another diocese, state, or country; and seminarians from other states or dioceses attending a seminary located in your jurisdiction.

Persons not eligible for RSVP funds are the following:

- Priests or religious seeking assistance for continuing education;
- Religious brothers not currently studying for the priesthood; and
- Candidates for the permanent diaconate.
