Ontario State Bursary Program

- This is an admission or entrance bursary program
- Marks are important to everyone's success, but the bursary committee will weigh with importance the candidate's financial need and past service to community and church
- State Board budgets $5000 per year – five $1000 bursaries

Ontario State Bursary Program

- Councils should promote this program in their bulletins from January through May
- Grand Knights need to promote this program to the members at the general meetings
- Councils are asked to delivery a copy of the State Bursary application to their local high school and also the link to our State website's bursary webpage

Ontario State Bursary Program

- District Deputies should promote this program to their GKs
- District Deputies that receive council bulletins are asked to look for this program being promoted by the council in that bulletin
- All post secondary students are looking for financial support therefore we need to promote this bursary program and make them aware of it
