Dear brother Knights and Delegates,

Our Faith in Action programs are more than the title implies. Our faith compels and directs us to be Shepherds in our community and to bring action in our works of charity. Our success and growth is the result of our programs! Many are recommended and endorsed by Supreme in the official Faith in Action programs, or unique and specialized programs designed by councils. It's through our programs that we conduct in our communities that brings the Order into the spotlight while always thinking of how we can attract more Catholic men to join our Order.

Supreme introduced eight new programs this fraternal year, two in each of the four Faith in Action pillars, and I hope that many councils conducted some of these new programs. These new programs gave councils something new to try to bring some new excitement into their list of options to offer. You should have noticed that all 8 of these new programs were geared toward our faith and not necessarily designed for raising charity funds. It is very important that our focus is about our faith and that we offer programs that any council can conduct even if funds are tight, but our energy and vision is great. It's our interaction with the people in our communities that develops better relationships and instills trust and interest for new men to join our Order.

On behalf of lady Lori and myself and the Ontario State Board Officers, I want to thank all of you for all the planning and execution of programs that each member, as well as their family members, did for their council to bring joy and excitement to their members and to others in their parish community. With Jesus our King of kings as our Shepherd, we can accomplish great things with Jesus as our main focus. Congratulations to all the councils that have been selected by various committees as the top winners in each of our categories. My hope is their recognition will inspire other councils to strive to submit award applications for consideration next year.

As I said in my January memo, which I spoke about the importance of awards. Grand Knights should always be on the lookout for potential new leaders in his council, especially chairmen of programs and other knights that helped in some large capacity. With the award in your hand, you can boost another knight's confidence to take on more responsibility when you honestly thank him for his efforts to achieve that particular award. Without even applying for the award for your council, the opportunity may be missed to find new leadership to one day replace each of us at the Council, District and State levels.

To all State Board Officers, State Directors, State Chairmen, Awards Directors, Awards Committee members and Office Staff,

I want to thank each and everyone of you for work to make this 123rd Annual State Convention a great success, especially those who worked at such an intense and fast pace these past two months. The process to review award applications, committee members to make difficult decisions to determine winners and the short time frame, get awards made, and to create booklets for the convention is a remarkable process that showcases how teamwork is the key to success with these annual conventions. It is difficult to know exactly how many people were involved with the Convention and Awards committees so I will recognize the key Directors who are involved with this whole process. My sincere appreciation to Convention Director & Executive Secretary Todd Cowan, State Awards Directors Dan Lohin and Mario Duguay, Life Director Alex Schadenberg, Faith Director Joseph Remedios, Community Director Rory Facca, Family Director Denis Belanger, including all those on committees to help make selections, and of course, to our staff who work tirelessly, including Liane Dumas and Ani Kaluzny. Your passion and hard work are certainly noticed and appreciated.

With love and admiration,

David Gelinás
State Deputy
